SPECIAL ANNOUNCEMENT

UNITED STATES IMPORT AND EXPORT STATISTICS FOR 1963 COMPILED IN TERMS OF THE STANDARD INTERNATIONAL TRADE CLASSIFICATION REVISED

I. ANNUAL 1963 EXPORT AND IMPORT STATISTICS IN TERMS OF THE SITC.

As indicated in the June 1963 issue of Report FT 110 and FT 410, United States trade data for calendar year 1962 were compiled in tabular form in terms of five digit items of the Standard International Trade Classification (SITC) where Schedule A and Schedule B commodity classifications were readily convertible, and to four digit SITC subgroups where it was not possible to convert to the fifth digit. Similar tabulations have been prepared for 1963 on a quarterly cumulative basis. The tabulations for 1963 and the locations at which they are available for reference use are as follows:

A. Tabulations:

1. UN-OECD 208 - United States Imports of Merchandise for Consumption, SITC Section by SITC Division by SITC Group by SITC Subgroup by SITC Item by Country of Origin.

2. UN-OECD 508 - United States Exports of Domestic Merchandise, SITC Section by SITC Division by SITC Group by SITC Subgroup by SITC Item by Country of Destination.

Limitation of data in import tabulation UN-OECD 208 due to introduction of TSUSA during 1963.

The UN-OECD 208 third and fourth quarter tabulations present 1963 cumulative data which are as comparable to 1964 data compiled under Schedule A, Revised, as is possible within the limitations imposed by the introduction of the Tariff Schedules of the United States, Annotated, (TSUSA) in September 1963 after the compilation of data for the first eight months of the year in terms of the 1963 Schedule A.

Some SITC commodities could not be derived from Schedule A; others could not be derived from TSUSA. However, for the SITC classifications for which a conversion from both Schedule A and TSUSA could be made, cumulative data are shown in the January - September and January - December 1963 issues of tabulation UN-OECD 208. The cumulative totals are subject to possibly greater inexactness than existed in tables for earlier periods. For both Schedule A and TSUSA some of the conversions to SITC were necessarily imprecise. In the case of some SITC classes, the two conversions may have been imprecise in different ways, so that the data for the two separate periods were not completely comparable. Nevertheless, in view of the absence up to this point of any 9- or 12- months import information for 1963 below the level of the 3-digit SITC, it was felt that cumulation of totals at the most detailed level of SITC for which data had been separately available for both periods would serve a useful purpose.

In those instances where cumulative information could not be provided at the item level of SITC because a conversion from either Schedule A or TSUSA (or both) was lacking, a "B" was entered as the fifth digit of the SITC number and the data were summarized, where possible, at the subgroup level. Likewise, where cumulative information could not be provided for the subgroup, a "B" was entered as the fourth and fifth digits of the SITC number and the data were summarized at the group level.

A few of the 3-digit SITC totals presented in the data for the earlier months of 1963 as compiled under Schedule A, were not considered obtainable after the adoption of the TSUSA (and are also not reflected in Schedule A, Revised, effective January 1964). For these, the following adjustments were made in the January - August data, in order to put both periods of the year on the same basis.

Annual 1963 SITC data in UN-OECD 208 reflect reassignments of TSUSA numbers made as of January, 1964.

The three-digit SITC data presented in the January - September and January - December 1963 issues of tabulation UN-OECD 208 include September - December TSUSA data in terms of the conversion shown in Schedule A, Revised, rather than in terms of the conversion of TSUSA to SITC which was reflected in the September - December monthly statistics as originally published in FT 110. The September - December 1963 data have thus been incorporated into the 1963 UN-OECD 208 in terms of the same 3-digit SITC conversion reflected in the presentation of 1964 data. (See Appendix b, page 101, of the special Census Bureau publication "Changes in Presentation of U.S. Import Statistics Effective 1964" for the changes in TSUSA conversion to 3-digit SITC and other information regarding Schedule A, Revised. Copies of this special publication are available upon request to the Foreign Trade Division, Bureau of the Census, Washington, D.C. 20233.)

II. SEPTEMBER - DECEMBER 1963 MONTHLY IMPORT DATA IN SITC BY COUNTRY AND COUNTRY BY SITC ARRANGEMENT.

Import data for the individual months of September through December 1963 have been recompiled in terms of the 3-digit SITC groups to reflect the 1964 conversion from TSUSA to 3-digit SITC referred to above. These special tabulations, showing imports for consumption and general imports, are in SITC 3-digit commodity by country of origin and country of origin by SITC 3-digit commodity arrangement, each month separately. The tabulations have been prepared in order to provide data for the individual months of September - December 1963 (beginning with the introduction of the TSUSA in September 1963) on a basis comparable with monthly 1964 data in terms of the 3-digit SITC groups. The data do not include errata published with December 1963 reports, or earlier, and are shown as they would have appeared for each of the months at the time of issue of the FT 110, FT 120, and other relevant machine tabulations during 1963. These special tabulations are on public reference at the locations noted in paragraph 1 of this Notice.

III. CUMULATIVE SEPTEMBER - DECEMBER 1963 IMPORT DATA IN TERMS OF SCHEDULE A, REVISED.

Cumulative import data for the period September - December 1963 have also been recompiled in terms of Schedule A, Revised, which became effective as of January 1964. These special tabulations, containing imports for consumption and general imports, are in the following arrangements: Schedule A, Revised, 7-digit commodity by country of origin (IM 147); Schedule A, Revised, 1-2-3- and 4-digit commodity by area and country of origin (IM 147-A); and area and country of origin by Schedule A, Revised 1-2-3- and 4-digit commodity (IM 137). The Schedule A, Revised, 1-2- and 3-digit commodities are coterminous with the 1-2-3-digit commodity classifications of the SITC.

These special tabulations have been prepared in order to provide cumulative data beginning with the introduction of the TSUSA in September 1963 on a comparable basis with the 1964 import statistics as shown in the FT 125 and in the above mentioned tabulations. The data in these special tabulations include revisions published with the December 1963 reports or earlier, but do not include revisions published during 1964. The tabulations are available for reference at the locations cited in paragraph 1 of this Notice.

COVERAGE

Types of Shipments Included

The import statistics include government as well as non-government shipments of merchandise from foreign countries to the United States. However, American goods returned by the United States armed forces for their own use are excluded. Shipments between the United States, its outlying possessions and Puerto Rico are not reported as United States imports, but imports into Puerto Rico from foreign countries are considered be United States imports and are included in this report. Merchandise shipped under Customs custody through the United States in transit from one foreign country to another is not reported as imports. In general, the import statistics are a complete record of the physical movement of merchandise into the United States from foreign countries (except for intransit shipments), but there are some exclusions of items of relatively small importance in terms of total value, such as personal and household effects.

Imports for consumption shown in this report consist of merchandise entered into United States consumption channels, i.e., merchandise released from Customs custody immediately upon arrival, merchandise entered into bonded manufacturing warehouses (other than smelting and refining warehouses), merchandise withdrawn from bonded storage warehouses for release into domestic consumption channels, and imported ores and crude metals which have been processed in bonded smelting warehouses.

Monthly Coverage

It is the objective of the compiling procedures, insofar as practical, to include shipments in the imports for consumption statistics for the month of import which, in general, is based on the date of filing of the consumption entry or warehouse withdrawal document.[1] However, because of processing problems, there has always been a carry-over of a small percentage of items from the proper month to a subsequent month (usually the month immediately following). The amount of this carry-over was increased a few years ago in order to take advantage of early release dates made possible with the use of electronic equipment.

RELATED INFORMATION

Information is also compiled for general imports, which represent total arrivals of imported goods (except for intransit shipments), i.e., merchandise released from Customs custody immediately upon arrival plus merchandise entered into bonded storage warehouses, bonded manufacturing warehouses, and bonded smelting and refining warehouses immediately upon arrival. General import figures covering total trade, country totals and Customs district totals are published monthly. General import commodity statistics are not published but are available for reference purposes.

[1]For shipments by vessel, merchandise is not included in the statistics prior to the date of formal entrance of the vessel (i.e., the date of the inward Customs manifest for the vessel).

Trade between the United States, Puerto Rico and United States possessions (not included as United States imports) is presented separately in Report No. FT 800. Statistics on the movement of intransit merchandise arriving at or leaving the United States by vessel (not included in this report) are also compiled and presented in summary form in Report No. FT 985. In addition, transportation statistics (showing shipping weight as well as value information) are compiled covering that part of general imports of merchandise which arrives by vessel. Summary vessel transportation statistics for both imports and exports are presented in Report No. 985. Effective with statistics for January 1962, information is being compiled on United States general imports of merchandise by air. These data are published in Reports FT 380, FT 390 and FT 986. A more complete description of the coverage and presentation of the various types of statistics mentioned above will be found in the introductions to the specified reports.

SOURCE OF INFORMATION

The source of information for all of the imports included in this report is the import entry and warehouse withdrawal forms which importers are required to file with Collectors of Customs. Effective January 1, 1962, statistical factors of country of origin, net quantity, value, and commodity classification are verified or corrected as necessary by Customs examiners on all formal consumption and warehouse entries. This verification of statistical data is made at the time the examiner reviews invoices and samples of merchandise for duty and other Customs purposes, and the statistical copy of the entry is corrected by the examiner at that time if he finds that it does not accurately reflect the information called for by the statistical requirements. Information on warehouse withdrawals which account for approximately 10 percent of the total value of imports for consumption, while not subject to the examiner verification procedure directly, should be improved indirectly (due to "education" of importers/brokers) by the verification of the warehouse entries to which they correspond.

VALUATION

The dollar value shown in the import statistics is defined generally as the market value in the foreign country, excluding the United States import duties, ocean freight and marine insurance.

COMMODITY INFORMATION

Commodity Classification

Effective with the statistics for February 1964, the basic import data, which are initially compiled in terms of the commodity classifications in Tariff Schedules of the United States Annotated (TSUSA), are being presented in this report in terms of a re-arranged commodity classification system, Schedule A, Revised, Statistical Classification of Commodities Imported Into the United States, which is based on the Standard International Trade Classification, Revised (SITC)[2]. Schedule A, Revised was constructed by the Bureau of the Census in order to provide for the summarization of data for the approximately 10,000 TSUSA classifications into about 2,200 commodity groupings which would be meaningful in terms of commodities important in the United States import trade and, at the same time, to provide data in terms of the Standard International Trade Classification outline which are comparable, insofar as possible, to the foreign trade statistics compiled by other trading nations.

The amount and kind of detail in Schedule A, Revised was determined on the basis of the estimated magnitude of trade in the various TSUSA commodities arranged within the framework of the SITC. The details of the Schedule A, Revised classification system are not considered to be final. Users of the statistics are invited to send comments or requests for changes in classifications to the Foreign Trade Division, Bureau of the Census. Such requests will be given consideration in connection with future modifications which will be made in the schedule.

A general description of Schedule A, Revised and its relation to the TSUSA classifications is presented in a special publication entitled "Changes in Presentation of United States Import Statistics Effective 1964." This publication also contains an outline of Schedule A, Revised which shows the TSUSA numbers included in the 7-digit Schedule A, Revised codes and gives abbreviated descriptions for the 7-digit classifications and for the 1, 2, 3, and 4-digit levels of summarization. (Complete descriptions for the 1, 2, and 3-digit levels are presented in Table 1 of this Report FT 125.) Descriptions at the 5-digit level are not furnished in the special publication since 5-digit summarizations of data are not presented in Report No. FT-125. However, users may total the data for 7-digit classifications having common first five digits to obtain summaries at the 5-digit level. For the convenience of users who wish to locate individual TSUSA numbers in the new classification system, the above-mentioned special publication contains a list in TSUSA number arrangement showing the Schedule A, Revised codes to which the TSUSA numbers were assigned. Further information regarding the SITC, the comparability of Schedule A, Revised to the SITC, and the disposition of SITC classifications in Schedule A, Revised is also contained in the special publication on changes in presentation of import statistics.

Some TSUSA Number Assignments to 3-digit SITC Groups Changed by Schedule A, Revised

For the period September 1963 through March 1964, the import statistics were issued in terms of TSUSA codes arranged within 3-digit SITC group codes. A correlation between the SITC group codes and the TSUSA numbers was furnished with the September 1963 statistics. With the adoption of Schedule A, Revised, some changes have been made in the TSUSA number assignments to SITC group codes as shown in the above-mentioned correlation. As a result, there are some differences between the data previously released for these 3-digit codes and the Schedule A, Revised data now being published for the same 3-digit codes. A special notice regarding these changes appears on page 3 of the February 1964 issue of this report. Further information and a list showing the 3-digit codes for which the assignment of TSUSA numbers was changed are included in the special publication entitled "Changes in Presentation of United States Import Statistics Effective 1964."

Availability of TSUSA Data

Information in terms of the 7-digit TSUSA classifications, under which the import statistics are initially compiled, is not presented as such in this report. (A few Schedule A, Revised classifications represent individual TSUSA classifications.) However, current monthly statistics in TSUSA number by country of origin arrangement for both general imports and imports for consumption are contained in a machine tabulation, identified as IM 146, copies of which are available for use at the following reference locations: Department of Commerce Field Offices in Boston, Chicago, Detroit, Houston, Los Angeles, New Orleans, New York, Philadelphia, and Seattle.

COUNTRY OF ORIGIN

The country reported in the statistics as the country of origin is defined as the country where the merchandise was grown, mined or manufactured. In instances where it is known that the country of origin cannot be determined, the transactions are credited to the country of shipment.

In Table 2 of this report, which presents data in commodity by country arrangement, and in Table 4, in country by commodity arrangement, countries are presented in the order of Schedule C, Classification of Country Designations Used in Compiling the United States Foreign Trade Statistics. Country names which are abbreviated in this report to save space are shown in full in Schedule C, together with descriptions of the countries, adjacent provinces, territories, islands or other areas considered to be a part of the country for statistical purposes. Schedule C is published as Annex B in Tariff Schedules of the United States Annotated. A separate edition of Schedule C is also available free upon request to the Bureau of the Census.

Table 3 of this report presents data on imports from major geographic trading areas in terms of 1, 2, 3, and 4-digit commodity classifications. The areas, in general, represent groupings of individual Schedule C countries. A list showing the trading areas and the individual countries included in each area appears in the February 1964 issue of this report. Also, following Table 4, there is an index of areas and countries which is footnoted to show the individual countries included in the various areas.

ESTIMATED DATA FOR LOW-VALUED IMPORTS

Since January 1958, data on imports valued under $100 reported on formal immediate consumption entries and imports reported on informal entries (by definition, valued not more than $250) have been estimated from a one percent sample and reported under an arbitrary commodity number (Schedule A number 9999 500 from January 1958 through August 1963, TSUSA number 999.9500 from September through December 1963). These estimates have been excluded from other individual commodity classifications. In addition, effective January 1963, estimated data on warehouse withdrawals for consumption valued under $100 are also included with the other low-valued imports under the above-mentioned arbitrary commodity numbers and excluded from the other individual commodity classifications. In this report, value estimates based on a one-percent sample of these low-valued shipments are shown separately under commodity codes 9900000, 9900, 990 and 99, and are also included in the section 9 total, the country and area totals and the global total. The statistics for commodity codes from which the low-valued shipments are excluded are undercounted to the extent that such "low-valued" shipments of the particular commodity are made. The total value so excluded amounts to about one percent of the monthly import total. Although subject to considerable variability,[3] particularly where the estimated amounts are relatively small, these estimates for low-valued imports may be of some interest as a rough guide to the general magnitude of the effect which the exclusion of the items has on the commodity data for individual areas or countries.

For any country where the low-value estimate may make up a significant portion of the country total, the sampling variability of the estimate may need to be considered in connection with the reliability of the country total. The extent to which the estimates might not agree with a complete tabulation of the shipments depends on the number of documents which fall in the sample. In Table 2, which contains seven-digit commodity by country data, the number of documents in the sample is shown by country under commodity code 9900000 in the net quantity columns. In the tables containing data in area by commodity and country by commodity arrangements, figures indicating the number in sample for the current month and the cumulative year to date are shown, respectively, following the description for commodity codes 99, 990, and 9900. The number in sample can be used in conjunction with the following table to obtain an estimate of the sampling variability on a two-times-out-of-three basis.

The table below indicates the degree of reliability to be attached to a specified value.

If the number of documents indicated from the sample is:	Then the chances are better than 2 out of 3 that a complete tabulation would have resulted in a value figure between

300-399	232,920	244,800
[2]400-499	261,120	273,000

[1]The actual value of shipments cannot be less than 1/100 of the estimated amount shown in the report. Figures in this column can be ignored if use of them for a particular total would bring the lower limit below 1/100 of the estimate.

[2]If the number of documents in the sample is greater than 499, sampling variability for the estimates of the low valued shipments will generally be less than 7 percent.

[3]The estimated total for low-valued imports reported under commodity number 9900000 is subject to a sampling variability of 3 to 4 percent. This means that the chances are 2 out of 3 that a complete tabulation would have resulted in a figure that differed from the estimate by no more than 3 to 4 percent. The estimates by country under commodity number 9900000 are subject to greater sampling variability - around 10 percent for countries with about 200 low-valued shipments in the sample; around 20 percent for countries with about 75 shipments in the sample; and over 20 percent for smaller sample sizes.

The following will illustrate the use of the table:

Suppose an estimated value of $310,800 is based on 45 documents in the sample. Referring to the line 40-49, one notes the values $79,800 and $99,000. This means that the chances are better than 2 out of 3 that a complete tabulation would have resulted in a figure between $231,000 ($310,800 reduced by $79,800) and $409,800 ($310,800 increased by $99,000). Similarly, a country total of $15,957,189 which represents a total of $15,559,689 for the fully compiled data plus an estimate of $397,500 for group 990 based upon 75 shipments in the sample would be between $15,855,189 ($15,957,189 reduced by $102,000) and $16,077,189 ($15,957,189 increased by $120,000).

In the event a user desires to combine 2 or more figures which are estimated values, or which include estimated values, the variability of the combined total can be determined by merely adding the sample size for each estimated value and then referring to the line on the reliability table applicable to the combined sample size.

REVISIONS IN PREVIOUS MONTHS' REPORTS

Prior to January 1964, revisions to data for earlier months of the current year and the previous year were published in the March, June, September, and December issues of Report No. FT 110. Under the revision policy which became effective January 1964, it is planned that corrections to the prior year's statistics will be published only in the June issue of this report while corrections to the current year's statistics will be published only in the December issue of this report. It is possible that individual exceptions to this policy may be made where extremely significant revisions are involved. Corrections for the current or previous years which are not published in this report will be held for reflection in the figures to be published in Foreign Commerce and Navigation of the United States for the particular year.

SOURCES OF FURTHER INFORMATION ABOUT IMPORT STATISTICS

A complete discussion of the compilation procedures and coverage for import statistics will be found in the Foreword to the latest edition of Foreign Commerce and Navigation of the United States. (Copies are available for reference at public libraries.) Supplementary information and explanations of interest to users of foreign trade statistics (such as announcements of changes in types of shipments covered by current statistics, unusual shipments, problems of valuation and classification, changes in statistical procedures, etc.) which were formerly included in a separate publication, Foreign Trade Statistics Notes, are now being included as special announcements in current issues of this report and other statistical publications. Copies of such announcements are also attached to reference copies of tabulations, where appropriate. Reports providing additional detail compiled but not published can be obtained on a cost basis. For further information regarding reference copies of tabulations or the availability of special reports, request should be made to the Bureau of the Census.
